COMMENTS

1. The participants showed commitment and they were eager to learn. As we decided instead working of 3hrs per day some time they worked over 8hrs and even Saturdays.
2. They learnt little on fine art but decided to put more effort in batik which could help them to make production and served easily.
3. During this course they had a lot of practical which gave them competence and confidence.
4. They got chance to go for Nane nane exhibition in Arusha region where they met many entrepreneurs and learnt a lot of ideas of how to make good quality goods, display and marketing.
5. They made variety of products of batiks, tie and dye as you can see the pictures.
6. Four of the participants showed capability of training others and they have started organizing small groups in town to work with in future if funds will be available.
7. The guest of honour Mrs Faith Reinson Kimori the Director for Courage Center for women officiated the function.
8. They were awarded certificates on 25th August, 2010 during their graduation ceremony.
9. The participants appreciated and read their speech to the guest of honour which is attached herewith.

N.B:- Beatrice Mille needed more training in Batik to gain confidence as she is the pastor's wife dealing with church women groups.

10. During their course they need to:

- learn English
- meet other Mkombozi Women once per week.
- exchange ideas, look at their problems and find solutions.
- earn more on health issues, nutrition, entrepreneurship for positive change in the family life and community at large.
- start their small saving and credit scheme (Kibati) where they will give each other small loan for their individual project.

Two people didn't satisfy the project coordination.

- Poor attendance
- Poor practical results
- Health
- Poverty
- Lack of domestic support
